

CONCERNED PERSON'S RIGHTS ACCORDING TO GDPR REGULATIONS SLLA

THE CONCERNED PERSON HAS THE RIGHT TO THE FOLLOWING:

Access to personal data (pursuant to Article 15 of the Regulation and § 21 of the Act)

The person concerned has the right to obtain from the Slovak Aviation Agency (hereinafter SLLA) a confirmation containing info, whether they are processing personal data concerning him / her. If SLLA processes such personal data, the person concerned has the right to access this data and information about:

- The purpose of the personal data processing
- Category of processed personal data,
- Identification of the recipient or the category of the recipient to whom personal data have been or should be provided, in particular the recipient in a third country or an international organization (if possible),
- Time of retention of personal data (if this is not possible, information on the criteria for its determination),
- Their right to demand SLLA to correct personal data relating to the person concerned, erase or restrict their processing, or to object to the processing of personal data,
- Their right to file a complaint within the meaning of the Regulation to the Supervisory Authority, which is the Bureau for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic, or to file a proposal to initiate a procedure for the personal data protection, within the Act,
- Sources of personal data, if personal data have not been obtained from the person concerned,
- The existence of automated individual decision-making, including profiling (including information on the procedure used, as well as the significance and implications of such processing of personal data for the person concerned),
- Appropriate transmission guarantees, if personal data are transferred to a third country or international organization.

SLLA will provide the person concerned with a copy of the personal data being processed. The SLLA may charge an appropriate fee corresponding to administrative costs for the re-provision of personal data requested by the person concerned.

If the person concerned has made the request by electronic means, the information shall be provided in a commonly used electronic form, unless the person concerned has requested a different means.

Right to correction (under Art.16 of the Regulation and § 22 of the Act)

The person concerned has the right to demand SLLA to correct wrong personal data concerning him / her, without unnecessary delay. With regard to the purpose of the processing of personal data, the person concerned is entitled to supplement incomplete personal data.

Right of deletion (the right to being forgotten under Art. 17 of the Regulation and § 23 of the Act)

The person concerned has the right to demand SLLA to delete the personal data concerning him / her, without unnecessary delay, if one of the following reasons is fulfilled:

- Personal data are no longer needed for purposes for which they were acquired or otherwise processed,
- The person concerned withdraws the consent (see below) under which processing is to be carried out if there is no other legal basis for the processing,
- The person in question objects to processing that is carried out on a legal basis of public interest or legitimate interest (see below) and no other legitimate reasons for processing does not prejudice,
- Personal data has been processed illegally,
- Personal data must be erased in order to comply with a statutory obligation under European Union or Slovak law,
- Personal data were obtained in connection with the provision of information society services under Art. 8, Section 1 of the Regulation or § 15, Section 1 of the Act.